

16th Day of Ordinary Time July 17, 2016

Welcome Father Cyril Ngede Ejaidu, from St. John the Baptist Parish in Waco, TX. He is here to preach the Mission Coop Appeal for the benefit of the Diocese of Otuoto, Nigeria. Please support Father Cyril in this important mission. Thank you.

Today's readings focus on hospitality: the welcome of Abraham and Sarah toward the travelers, who were God's messengers, and the hospitality of Mary and Martha, especially Mary's openness to listen to God's word. In the midst of our busy lives do we make room for hospitality? Who is the angel that God is sending us and do we make room to welcome them? Do we take time to listen to God's word and allow it to help us to welcome the stranger in our midst? Do we recognize and welcome Jesus in his distressing disguise as poor?

St. Paul's Honor Garden - Update

Having just celebrated the Fourth of July, birth of our country, I am reminded that we, the parish, had hoped to be dedicating our Honor Garden remembering and giving thanks for those who have served our nation. Unfortunately, we have run into an unexpected obstacle.

Initially our architect estimated our cost at approximately $160,000. We have worked towards that goal and raised just over $100,000. Our plan was to continue fundraising as we began construction. Our discovery after putting the garden out for bids is that not many companies wanted to undertake such a small project and secondly, the bid that we did get was well over the estimate. Now faced with having to raise an additional $160,000, we found ourselves daunted by such a task.

The good news is that we have not been discouraged by this setback. It is truly a setback and so it means that we will have to work harder to make up the difference. We need help with finding donors who are supportive of such a unique project as ours and are willing to help it become a reality. We need your help.

If you have any questions, please contact me by calling the office or sending me an email: rmpatino@aol.com.
Fr. Ruben Patino, CSP - Pastor.

Cookbook Update

We haven't sold any cookbooks this week, but plan on collecting money from the wonderful businesses who are selling our cookbooks next week. Every cookbook we sell helps to pay down our mortgage on the Family Life Center. We are very grateful to Bayside Fresh Market, The Bottle Shop, Bay Pharmacy, Ace Hardware, The Church of Horseshoe Bay, and Choccollate's and St. John the Evangelist Church gift shop in Marble Falls for their support. You can still purchase cookbooks ($15.00 each) from our parish office M-F from 8:30-1:00. If you have any questions, please call Diane Snyder, 830-598-4349. Thank you for your continued support.

The Knights of Columbus will be collecting bags this weekend to benefit the Crisis Center, which serves abused women and their children in the area. Thank you for your generosity. God Bless!

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus affirms that to be a disciple we must also sit at his feet and listen to him. St. Vincent de Paul taught that it is only in prayer that we can give selfless loving service to those who are poor.

This week, please say a special prayer each day for the poor and forgotten in our community.

A Word from Servant of God Isaac Hecker, Founder of the Paulist Fathers

“Now I can say with some degree of certainty that I have found all that I have ever sought. All my seeking is now ended. The most I can wish for each one of you is that you can say the same thing. If you cannot, Christ has said: ‘seek and ye shall find’.” Can anyone say more than this?.” [June 1885]

If you have asked Father Hecker to pray for you or another person who is ill, and you believe something miraculous has happened, please phone Father Paul Robichaud, CSP, at 202-269-2519 and tell him your story.
