April 10, 2016

This weekend, April 9 & 10th, the 2nd collection is for Seminarians and Priests' Education.
Thank you for your generosity!

Cookbook Update

The cookbooks arrived last Friday, earlier than expected as Father mentioned last weekend. They will be available after all masses beginning this weekend. Many thanks to the Ladies of WWICS who will be delivering/selling cookbooks, as well as taking reservations for the Volunteer Dinner on Sunday, April 24. They will have the list of those who have already paid and a list of those who preordered cookbooks. Those who have not paid or preordered are encouraged to purchase cookbooks as well. We have ordered plenty of cookbooks for everyone. Please make checks out to WWICS. If you are paying cash, it will be appreciated if you have the correct amount and we will have some change. We expect a lot of sales this weekend. We will also be selling cookbooks next weekend. If you have any questions, you can email them to stpaulhsbcookbook@gmail.com.

Thanks to all of you for your support. We will also be selling/delivering cookbooks at the Volunteer Dinner and at the first Saturday/Sunday socials after the masses.

A Word from Servant of God Isaac Hecker, Founder of the Paulist Fathers

“This will increase individual action, liberty and energy. This will reverse the present attitude of Catholics throughout the world. Instead of being subject in their political life as they are now to an infidel minority, and sometimes a very feeble one, they will exert an influence outweighing largely their own numbers; they will take the direction as the natural leaders of all the great enterprises of society, and embrace also in their views and actions the whole world.” [On the Mission of New Religious Communities, 1876]

If you have asked Father Hecker to pray for you or another person who is ill, and you believe something miraculous has happened, please phone Father Paul Robichaud, CSP, at 202-269-2519 and tell him your story.
