Lenten Course : The Spirituality of the Gospels

I will present a program produced by Little Rock Scripture Study entitled the Spirituality of the Gospels. The course will run through Lent on Thursday evening 7-8:30 pm, first class on March 2nd. There are small study books that accompany the course; price is $18 per set. The course is comprised of watching a presentation and group discussion. If Interested, please sign up with Fr. Ruben at rmpatino@aol.com or in person.

In Spirituality of the Gospels the modern quest for spiritual fulfillment is met with profound insights from the gospels. All four gospels call readers to become faithful followers of Christ but each gospel has a special focus on Christ. Responding to any gospel's special focus promises to also nourish a distinct spirituality one that will resonate with the spiritualities of saints and disciples both ancient and modern. Fr. Patrick Hardin finds in Matthew's gospel a spirituality based on Christ's transformative presence within us; in Mark is found the challenge of martyrdom; in Luke the call to embrace the poor; and in John disciples are called to contemplative virtues springing from grace and love.

A Word from Servant of God Isaac Hecker, Founder of the Paulist Fathers

“Oh heavenly Father wilt thou give me grace and strength to keep getting better to over come all temptations that may beset my path. Oh Lord awaken me more to the divine capacities thou hast endowed Man with and wilt thou make my sight clearer and my hearing delicater that I may see more and more of thy law and hear more and more of thy divine voice of love.”
[Diary, August 9, 1843]

If you have asked Father Hecker to pray for you or another person who is ill, and you believe something miraculous has happened, please phone Fr. Paul Robichaud, CSP, at 202-269-2519 and tell him your story.
