A Word from Servant of God Isaac Hecker, Founder of the Paulist Fathers

Yesterday I went to the Catholic Church in West Roxbury; it was Easter Sunday. The services of the Church were to me very impressively affecting. The altar piece was Christ's rising from the tomb. This was the subject matter of the Priest's sermon. In the midst of it as he was preaching he turned and pointed to the painting with a few touching remarks turning all eyes towards it which made his remark doubly affective. How inspiring it must be to the Priest when he is preaching to see around him the Saviour the godly company of Martyrs Saints and Fathers." [Diary, April 17, 1943]

If you have asked Father Hecker to pray for you or another person who is ill, and you believe
